

ENVIRONMENTAL REGULATIONS 101: A BROAD OVERVIEW

Education + Meaningful Participation = Community Empowerment

The ENVIROSCHOOL for communities training program is a series of sessions designed to educate communities and to encourage meaningful participation in the regulatory process. Please join us for our next session ENVIRONMENTAL REGULATIONS 101: A BROAD OVERVIEW. This session will give you an introduction to understanding environmental regulations and what they are designed to do. Through this session you will also become familiar with understanding state and federal environmental regulations including how they are set and delegation to LDEQ, understanding how regulations govern DEQ processes, and how the public can participate in the rule-making process. PLEASE REGISTER BELOW FOR ONE OF THESE SESSIONS or online at www.deq.louisiana.gov/enviroschool.
